Intro: D - - A - - G - A D
(verse 1)
                  Α
Peace beyond all understanding guards my heart in troubled times
Through the grace and love of Jesus, this relentless joy is mine
      D/F# G D Bm G
Precious gift of God's salvation sent to us from heaven's throne
                        G
To redeem the hopeless sinner and to call this wretch His own
(chorus)
                    D
Every knee shall bow before Him, every tongue confess Him Lord
     D/F# G A
                             G A D
To the glory of the Father, He shall reign forevermore
Link: D - - A - - G - A D
(verse 2)
In whatever trials befall me, I can find true joy indeed
From the riches of His glory, God supplies my every need
                     D
                                 \mathbf{Bm}
For the sake of knowing Jesus, I count everything as loss
To attain the resurrection by His blood shed on the cross
(chorus)
                                         Em
                    D
Every knee shall bow before Him, every tongue confess Him Lord
                               G A
           G A
To the glory of the Father, He shall reign forevermore
Link: D - - A - - G - A D
(verse 3)
Christ began His work within me and will surely see it through
                                    G A
              A
Till the great and joyous morning when at last all things are new
      D/F# G D
                          Bm G
Blessed hope of life eternal, He has triumphed o'er the grave
Now the power of death is broken And my poor lost soul is saved
(chorus)
                    D
                                 G
                                          Em
Every knee shall bow before Him, every tongue confess Him Lord
                               G A
     D/F# G
                 A
To the glory of the Father, He shall reign forevermore
Every knee shall bow before Him, every tongue confess Him Lord
      D/F# G A
To the glory of the Father, He shall reign for - evermore
